Interactive website up for Budget 2018

PETALING JAYA — An interactive website for Malaysians to submit their ideas and suggestions for the 2018 Budget next month has gone live.

The Prime Minister's Office launched the site to encourage Malaysians to provide feedback on the issues close to their heart prior to the tabling of the budget on Oct 27.

Press secretary to the prime minister, Datuk Seri Tengku Sariffuddin, said in a statement Malaysians could log on to <https://bajet2018.najibrazak.com> to document their suggestions.

He encouraged the rakyat to provide as much feedback as they could.

"As in previous years, the feedback and suggestions play an important role in the formation of the Budget," Sariffuddin said.

The statement said the website's categories are — the digital economy, cost of living, housing and urban life, healthcare, transportation and infrastructure, rural development, the environment and agriculture, youth and sports, culture and tourism, and public security and transparency.

It added the categories would cover the essence of the Budget to be tabled by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak.

The site will be available until Sept 18.
