Bernama - More Than 6,600 Proposals Received Via Budget 2021
Consultation Sessions And Website

☐ Monday, Nov 02 2020☐ ☐

KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 2 - More than 6,600 proposals have been received through the Budget 2021 consultation sessions involving political parties as well as the Budget 2021 website, said Finance Minister Tengku Datuk Seri Zafrul Abdul Aziz.

Of these, more than 170 proposals were obtained via meetings with politicians, he said.

"Generally, the proposals are focused on the support and assistance required to weather the effects of COVID-19 as we approach 2021.

"Among the sectors with the highest number of proposals are healthcare, job support, education and the small and medium enterprise (SME) industry. The government is sifting through all proposals for inclusion in Budget 2021 which will be announced on Friday, Nov 6," he said in a statement today.

Tengku Zafrul expressed thanks to all stakeholders – the people, businesses, non-governmental organisations as well as the public and private sectors – that participated in the consultation process.

According to the minister, Budget 2021 is the fifth phase in the six-phase strategy or 6R Strategy, which is the government's economic recovery plan rolled out starting March.

Budget 2021, which follows the success of the previous economic stimulus packages, has three main objectives -- ensuring the people's welfare, business continuity and economic resilience.

The Budget 2021 consultation was held with representatives from political parties, including Umno, Gabungan Parti Sarawak,
