

FAQ

1. What type of monetary and fiscal data is available on the MOF website?

The following time series data is available:

- a. Consolidated Public Sector Finance
- b. Federal Government Finance
- c. Federal Government Revenue
- d. Federal Government Operating Expenditure
- e. Federal Government Development Expenditure
- f. Federal Government Net Borrowings
- g. Federal Government Domestic Debt
- h. National Debt
- i. State Governments Consolidated Finance
- j. Local Governments Consolidated Finance
- k. Statutory Bodies Consolidated Finance
- l. NFPEs Financial Position

What is the Economic Report?

The Economic Report published by the Ministry of Finance provides information and statistics on the economy. The report covers the evaluation of the country's economic performance and brings forth the main issues and policy measures in economic management. It also underlines the economic challenges and presents the prospects for the coming year. The report comprises of five chapters:

- a. Chapter 1: Economic Prospect and Management
- b. Chapter 2: International Economic Performance and Cooperation
- c. Chapter 3: Economic Performance and Prospects
- d. Chapter 4: Public Sector Finance

e. Chapter 5: Monetary and Financial Developments

When and how could a copy of the Economic Report be obtained?

The Report which is published on the National Budget Day by the Ministry of Finance can be downloaded from the Ministry's website or purchased directly from:

- Percetakan Nasional Malaysia Berhad
- Jalan Chan Sow Lin
- 50554 Kuala Lumpur
- 03-92366888 / 92366895
- 03-92366999/92224773
- cservice@printnasional.com.my